These bylaws are intended to define the organization of SMA leadership. If these bylaws conflict with Constitution, then the Constitution prevails. Supporting these bylaws is a body of operational policies that are intended to guide the activities of officers, Board members, and committees. Operational policies may be changed by a majority vote, conducted either in person or electronically, of the voting Board members.

The award winner from the previous year should be asked to serve on the committee.
7. The Consortium Coordinator Selection Committee shall solicit nominations and recommend an incoming Doctoral Consortium Co-Coordinator to the Southern Management Association Officers each year. The Southern Management Association President will appoint three people who have experience with the doctoral consortium to serve on this committee. 8. The membership and responsibilities of Ethics Committee(s) shall be governed by SMA's Ethics Policy.
